

INTRODUCTION TO ENGLISH FOR SPECIFIC PURPOSES

*Tell me and I forget,
Teach me and I remember,
Involve and I learn.*

Based on the quotation above, interactivity, primarily through tasks aiming to get students' response, is a primary element of this course.

➤ Instructor's information

Name: Omar Laabed

E-mail: traduc27@live.fr

➤ Course information

Academic year: 2019 – 2020

Audience: L3 English students at University of Ziane Achour - DJELFA

Meeting hours: ////////////////

➤ Learning objectives and methods of assessment

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

1. Know the basics of the ESP,
2. Know the core differences between ESP and EGP,
3. Know specific types of ESP,
4. Use an ESP course for teaching.

➤ Methods of assessment will include:

1. Assigned homework (to deliver through email)
2. Finals and tests,

➤ Assignments

Assignments are tasks related to the thoughts and ideas covered in this online course.

➤ Contents

- Definition of English for Specific Purposes (ESP)
- Emergence of ESP
- Branches of ESP
- Characteristics of ESP
- English for Specific Purposes Vs. English for General Purposes

INTRODUCTION

This course is intended for use by third year BA students of English at the University of Ziane Achour - Djelfa (Algeria.)

This is your first contact with this module. It aims at equipping you with knowledge on the learning and teaching English for specific needs.

This course discusses the definition, emergence, types, and features of English for Specific purposes as opposed to English for General Purposes (EGP).

To start with, the quiz must be a good indicator if you can grasp the knowledge that you are about to learn. Therefore, if you did not have a full score, you should go back to the quiz section and learn the definitions of the terms provided.